HAWAIIAN CABLE.

The Sugar Question Again.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND HANDLED

Bill to Appoint a Commission on Strikes-The Nicaragua Canal.

ROUGHLY.

(From our Regular Correspondent.) WASBINGTON, Feb. 18, '95 -Mr. Cleveland is getting more open abuse from Senators on account of that ex-traordinary bond contract, than he did from members of the House, and it is also more outspoken. Senator Wolcott characterized it as His broken heart cried out with pain.

> were not entitled to consideration it is were standing did not warn them the Rothchilds and the President, I at Their names are Messrs. William Dew the Rothchilds and the President, 19cause they have sought to blacken our credit." Senator Lodge said the act was the blackest ever perpetrated by an adm nistration in dealing with American securities, and Senator Teller went to the relatives, and the remains were even further than these in his criticism of Mr. Cleveland: Up to this time, no Senator has even attempted to defend ta' bond contract, although Senator Hill said it was Congress and not Mr.

Cleveland that was to blame.

It is thought that the crushing defeat of the adm distration gold bond bill in the House last week ends all financia talk in that branch of Congress for the pre ent session, but the Senate has taken up the subject and will do some speech making even if it does no voting.
The bill for the unlimited coinage of -ilver, which was reported from the Finance committee, and the gold bond subtitute therefor, as well as Senator Hill's resolution declaring the intention of this government to pay its bonds with the best money when there is any difference in the money in circulation, are all open for debate. No vote can be reached upon any of them without what would rea ly be unanimous consent, ow-sion, and of the necessity for disposing of the regular appropriation bills.

Senator Platt, of Connecticut, never goes off half-cock. When he makes a peech his colleagues know that he has arefully considered the subject upon which he speaks, and that he never tries to straddle any question, great or small; hence the significance of his re-marks upon the bill for the repeal of the differential duty on sugar and the amendments concerning mat inspection which have been added to it by the Sen ti, seems to be meeting with great success.

The Transport of that city in speaking of eStamina League says:

Some Questions Concerning the Bible.

Editor Richmond PLANET:

Sir :- It is now four weeks since I sent the following important question to the Planer. So far my appeal for an answer has been in vain. Kindly allow me to ask them once more in the hope that some one will take pity on my ignorance and enlighten my darkness: 1.-Where in the Bible is the canon of the Scriptures given? i. e. where is it said which and how many books belong to 3.-Where in the Bible is it said that the gospel of St. Luke, not to mention other parts, is inspired?

3 —Where in the Bible is it said that the rules laid down by our Lord: "Go and teach all nations." "Go and preach the gospel." "If one will not hear the church let him be like a publican and a were ever to be changed and that the Bible would be the only rule of
